

Volume 11 Issue 2
06 / 2013
tamarajournal.com

If I Could Do it One More Time

Marilu Marcillo-Gomez

Berkeley College, US

MMarcillo@faculty.ctuonline.edu

If I could do it again, I would do it the same, with some minor changes.
I would not change anything about you, except some minor things...
Forget that, you were a perfect mother!
I was lucky to have you
If I could be with you one more time I would do it again, except I would want to be with you forever.
I think how lonely you must be out there in heaven.
Then I remember you have the company of many.
Tell them I miss them too.
I know you were never an animal lover, but yet if all dogs go to Heaven
then I know Henry is with you too.
Lucky for you he was the best dog ever. Just remember he loves to dance.
I hope you can see us now, we are one less without you, but we feel your presence.
I feel your love; I hear your voice in my loneliness.
If I could just have one more day, I would not let you go.
But since I can't have one more day; I fear not death, for you are there waiting for me and that brings me peace.
Know that as time passes by, my love for you does not fade it grows stronger each day.
Thank you for being my mother. I was lucky to have you.
Remember that if I could do it again, I would do it the same...