

GUIDELINES FOR THE AUTHORS

1. Paper submitted to The Critique of Law should be formatted as follows: font - Times New Roman 12 pkt, line spacing – 1.5, alignment - justified, page numeration;
2. Footnotes: font – Times New Roman 9 pkt, line spacing – 1, alignment - justified, arabic numeration;
3. Footnotes should begin from capital letter and end with a dot;
4. Footnote numbers (upper indexes) should be placed directly after text (without a space) and before punctuation;
5. Bibliographic footnotes:
 - a. in case of a book: the initial name and surname of the author, title of the publication in italics, place and year of publication, page range, e.g. D. Bainbridge, Intellectual Property, Pearce, 2012, pp. 50–55;
 - b. in case of a collective work: title of publication in italics, the abbreviation "ed.", the initial and full last name of the editor (editors), place and year of publication, e.g. The Sports Process. A Comparative and Developmental Approach, red. Eric G. Dunning, Joseph A. Maguire i Robert E. Pearton, Champaign 1993;
 - c. in case of an article in a collective work: the initial name and surname of the author, title of the article in italics, [in:] title of the publication in italics, the abbreviation "ed.", the initial name and surname of the editor (editors), place and year of publication, e.g. A. Guttmann, The Diffusion of Sports and the Problem of Cultural Imperialism, [in:] The Sports Process. A Comparative and Developmental Approach, ed. Eric G. Dunning, Joseph A. Maguire i Robert E. Pearton, Champaign 1993, p. 132;
 - d. in case of an article in journal: the initial name and surname of the author, title of the article, title of the journal (full one) in italics, designation number and year, page range, e.g. M. Tsuchiya, Defense against Cyber Terrorism: Head War and Body War, “Transformations” 2010, 3–4/2010, p. 260;
6. Re-quoting:
 - a. if the work is cited for the first time, a full description should be given;
 - b. if the work has been already quoted:
 - and this is so far the only relied work of the author: the initial name and surname of the author, the abbreviation op.cit., page numbers, e.g. D. Bainbridge, op. cit., pp. 60–61;
 - and this is one of at least two appointed works of the author:: initial name and surname of the author, title beginning in italics ..., the abbreviation op.cit., page numbers, e.g. D. Bainbridge, Intellectual..., op.cit., p. 72;
 - c. if the work was cited in a footnote directly preceding the current one: Ibidem, page numbers if they differ from those indicated in the previous footnote, e.g.
D. Bainbridge, Intellectual Property, Pearce, 2012, pp. 50–55.
Ibidem, s. 48;
 - d. if in a footnote followed by another, a work by the same author is cited, idem is given instead of the name of the author – e.g.
D. Bainbridge, Intellectual Property, Pearce, 2012, pp. 50 – 55.
Idem, Information Technology and Intellectual Property Law, Bloomsbury Professional 2014, p. 48.

All cited publications should appear at the end of the article in the Bibliography (References) in alphabetical order by surname.

Please add DOI numbers, as a link, at the end of each item.